Municipal Profile

The City of Bridgeport is located in Fairfield County at the mouth of the Pequonnock River on Long Island Sound. It is bordered by the towns of Trumbull to the north, Fairfield to the west, and Stratford to the east; with an approximate population of 147,000, 50,367 households, and a population density of 9,226 residents per square mile. The City has a Mayor-City Council form of government. The City's Mayor is the chief executive officer of the City and serves four-year term(s). The City Council, which acts as the City's legislative body, consists of twenty (20) members elected for two-year terms

GENERAL STATEMENT OF DUTIES:

Professional recreation work in the planning, development, operation and conducting of recreational programs. While work is subject to general review for uniformity with policies, there is great latitude for independent judgment and decision with respect to details and execution. The Recreation Coordinator class is distinguished from the Recreation Supervisor by the latter's degree of program responsibility, which includes preparing and justifying a budget, grant writing, preparing unit reports and presentations for Council, and administering a comprehensive program.

Shift hours are seven days each week at flexible times and locations that correlate with events and programs.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

The essential functions or duties described below are the primary functions and duties of the position. There may be other types of work that may be performed, and the omission of a particular duty or function does not exclude that duty or function from the position provided the duty or function is similar in work, related to the work or logically assigned to the position.

- Recruit, train, schedule, and supervise all part-time seasonal staff
- Develop and maintain programs for all recreation accounts such as, but not limited to; the aquatics program, youth camps, adaptive recreation and inclusion support programs and athletics
- Manage all recreation programs that are held, including during nights and weekends
- Schedule locations and obtain permits for all recreation programs and activities
- Prepares and manages programming budgets

- Coordinate and participate in promotional marketing events throughout the City
- Purchase and maintain inventory of special equipment and supplies

Management of Programs include but are not limited to: the Adaptive Recreation and Inclusion Support Program, Athletics, Aquatic, Recreation Centers, and special events.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED: Performed under general administrative direction of the Superintendent of Recreation and/or Department Authority

SUPERVISION EXERCISED: Supervises full time and seasonal Recreation staff

MINIMUM EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

College graduation from an accredited college or university with a degree in public, parks and recreation administration or combination of education and experience

Extensive experience in general recreation programs, including five years in a supervisory capacity

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES

- Knowledge of the practices and methods and of community needs and problems with respect to public recreation
- Ability to prepare complex and oral and written reports
- Ability to organize and make effective policies of procedures pertaining to recreation and public relations programs
- Thorough knowledge of organization and management principles and practices with reference to playgrounds, community centers and athletics
- MUNIS experience preferred for inputting revenue into MUNIS
- Requires extensive use of registration and reservation software
- Must be able to work evenings, weekends, and holidays

LICENSES AND CERTIFICATIONS

- A valid Connecticut Driver's License may be required for transportation between various locations.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS AND WORK ENVIRONMENT

The physical demands and work environment characteristics described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations which do not cause undue hardship may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

- Essential and marginal functions may require maintaining physical condition necessary for sitting for prolonged periods of time. Tasks may involve extended periods of time at a keyboard or workstation. Frequent downward flexion of neck, side-to-side turning of the neck, fine finger dexterity and grasp to manipulate the keyboard, telephone, writing instruments, papers, books, manuals, and reports.
- Ability to see and read objects closely, as in typing from another document, reading/proofreading a report, read plans, using a computer monitor, filing and/or retrieving information from a filing system and verifying the accuracy of financial information.

This job description is not, nor is to be intended to be, a complete statement of all duties, functions, responsibilities, and qualifications which comprise this position.

This position will require a pre-employment medical examination and drug testing.
